

LITTLE INTEREST IN ELECTION

Local Contests Absent And Many Did Not
Register.

POLLS OPEN AT 6 A. M.

Light Vote is Expected in The City And County.

The election to be held today will be of small interest locally.

Only two officers are to be chosen in this part of the State.

Judge Thos. J. Nunn, for Judge of the Court of Appeals, has no opposition.

Congressman A. O. Stanley, seeking his fourth re-election, is opposed by R. J. Salmon, of Hopkins county, but the contest is not in doubt.

A very light vote will be cast in Hopkinsville, as 1,000 voters failed to register.

The polls will open at the 31 precincts in the county at 6 a. m. and close at 4 p. m.

Seven precincts are in the city.
Early returns may be expected, as it will not take long to count the votes.

A Teetotal Stranger.

A good story used to be told by the late Edwin F. Kelly, who was quite a society favorite in South Christian way back yonder about 1825 to 1835. At his wedding were assembled many friends—old and young, men and women—and among them one Matt. W., popular with every one, original if anything, and withal a most interesting character.

Among the guests was a Miss Martha Williams, a young lady of the neighborhood and quite a social favorite. Mr. Kelly, wishing his friends to enjoy themselves and have a good time generally, was busy introducing those who had never met, and, approaching his friend W., said:
"Matt, I want you to meet Miss Martha Williams."

"But, Edwin, I don't know her."
"Oh, well, come on and I will introduce you."

"What! introduce me to a teetotal stranger?"

These good people have long since gone to their reward.

A Mammoth Potato.

Mr. Cook Jones, the well known farmer of the Slaughter'sville section, brought to the Hustler office Wednesday the biggest thing in the way of a sweet potato we ever saw.
It weighs 11 pounds and five ounces.
It is of the variety known as the "Southern Sweet." Mr. Jones says he has many of these potatoes weighing from 2½ to 4 pounds.—

Seven Days of Grace.

Only one more week until war will be declared upon poor Bob White.
Quail are said to be plentiful, while advices coming from various sections of the country state that in many instances rabbits and squirrels are so numerous that they have destroyed crops.

Will be Ordained.

Rev. V. A. Johnson, a theological student now in school at Bethel College, who is a member of the First Baptist church of this city, will be ordained to-morrow night at the prayer meeting service. He has been called to the pastorate of a church for a part of his time and it is necessary that he be ordained.

Mrs. Coleman's Will.

The last will and testament of the late Mrs. Sarah T. Coleman was probated yesterday. She bequeathed all of her property of every description to her sister, Mrs. Emeline C.
Glass.

Mrs. Glass is named as sole executrix. The instrument was dated August 31, 1894.

Went to Eddyville.

A party of six from this city went to Eddyville Sunday and held religious services in the penitentiary.
They were joined by others at Princeton. There were several conversions among the convicts.

GUNS! GUNS! GUNS! GUNS! GUNS!

COL. THEO. ROOSEVELT SAYS,
"The Ansley H. Fox Hammerless Gun is the Best Gun on Earth."
THE COLONEL KNOWS.

Aside from the Ansley H. Fox, we have the famous Remington Automatic, Remington Hammerless with Automatic Ejector, Remington Hammerless without the Ejector, the L. C. Smith Hammerless, the Winchester Pump—and on down the line to the H. & R. Single Barrel. We also have a line of Winchester, Stevens and Remington 22 Calibre Rifles, Smith & Wesson, Colt's and Savage Revolvers, and ammunition for all these, in the World's Standard Brands—namely, the Winchester, U. M. C. and Western Cartridge Co., loaded with Dupont, L. & R. and Ballistite Powder. We are sure it will be worth your while to allow us the pleasure of showing you through our line before making your purchase. Especially Do We Want to Show You Our Line of Fox and Remington Guns.

STATE SENATOR DIED SATURDAY

Hon. J. J. Watkins, of Union County, Victim of Gastritis.

Sturgis, Ky., Nov. 7.—Senator J.
J. Watkins died Saturday morning, after suffering for three weeks with gastritis and dilation of the heart.
Senator Watkins was one of the most prominent members of the State Senate, and made a strong fight for the county unit bill.

He was an announced candidate for the Democratic nomination for superintendent of public instruction, and his chances for success were encouraging. He had recently returned from the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, at Shelbyville, where he was elected unanimously for Grand Outer Guard.

The deceased was publisher of the New-Democrat at Sturgis and was interested in numerous business concerns in the town and county.

He was a native of Union county.
He had served several terms in the State Senate for the Fifth district of Union and Henderson counties, and was for eight years superintendent of the Sturgis public schools.
He was a member of the State Educational Commission.

Senator Watkins was a prominent Odd Fellow, Mason and Knight of Pythias. He was about 48 years old and unmarried.

6,383 CONVERTS.

Evangelist Sunday Breaks
All Past Records.

New Castle, Pa., Nov. 4.—Evangelist Billy Sunday closed his six weeks' revival meetings. During the day he secured 1,060 converts, making a total of 6,383 for the six weeks. He broke his record for converts at any one session by securing 518 at the evening meeting. His best previous record was 439, made at Seattle.

The last collections amounted to $12,500. Sunday is paid by a free will offering, taken at the closing session of his stay, and the amount received goes to him. This also beats the record.

Ten thousand people fought to get into the tabernacle to hear him Sunday is conducting a campaign in Waterloo, Ia.

CAST INTO OCEAN

Request of Woman Born at Sea Carried Out.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 7.—The dying request of Miss Le C. Iglesia, of Manchester, Conn., that her body be cremated and the ashes scattered in the wind "to the four corners of the earth" was carried out by C. J.
Roadstrand, an undertaker, who, procuring from the Springfield Crematory the elaborate cut glass urn containing the ashes, drove to the north end bridge, and choosing a moment when no one was passing, slowly let the ashes sift into the waters of the Connecticut river.

This interpretation of Miss Iglesia's will was the best that could be made, as the ashes will be carried by the Connecticut river to the sea and perhaps to the "four corners of the earth."

Miss Iglesia was born on the high seas and was known as a woman without a country.

LOUISVILLE GIRL LOSES.

Must Pay Duties on Gowns Brought From France.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The Board of General Appraisers, in a report to the Treasury Department yesterday, made an interesting decision concerning the law governing the assessment of duties on the personal effects of returning citizens.

In the case of Miss Marie R.
Glover, daughter of Walter E. Glover, of Louisville, Ky., who protested against the payment of $463 duty on the ground that she was a bona fide resident of Paris, the board holds that her residence is still with her parents in Louisville and that in spite of several years' sojourn in France, she cannot claim residence there.

SUICIDE

Caused by Recurrence of Mental Disorder.

Joseph Hamilton, of Daviess county, who had been twice confined in the Western Kentucky Asylum for the insane, and had been at home from the last trip only a month, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid last Friday.

Hamilton was the son of Abe Hamilton, of Whitesville, and was about twenty-one years old. The act is attributed to a sudden recurrence of mental trouble.

NO BLUE LAWS.

Passes Ordinance Over Mayor's Veto.

Shelbyville, Ky., Nov. 4.—The board of council, in regular session last night, put itself on record as emphatically opposed to the old "blue laws" which have been enforced by order of Mayor Gruber for the past six Sundays. By a unanimous vote of the members, who were all present with the exception of T. J. Ramsay, the Mayor's veto of the proposed amendment to the new ordinance, which was adopted at the previous meeting, permitting the sale of soft drinks, cigars, tobacco, cooked meats, fruits, confectionery, etc., was overruled.

The new ordinance will not become effective until its publication in legal form but the probability is that no attempt will be made to close places doing this class of business even before that time.

Salary of $15,000 a Year.

New York, Nov. 9.—Christy Mathewson has signed a contract with the New York club for next season at the highest salary ever paid in the history of baseball. It is understood that Mathewson will receive for his services next season $15,000.
